YOGA & HEALTH

Women's Fitness-disease prevention and management through correct nutrition and exercise

An interactive session with Sumaya Dalmia, who will share with us her indepth knowledge and expertise, advising us on how we can manage, prevent diseases through correct nutrition and exercise. As they say prevention is always better than the cure.

Sumaya Dalmia is a young, dynamic fitness expert/consultant. Part of the Health/fitness and spa industry in India. She is trained at the American College of Sports Medicine, and is a trained Pilates professional. She runs a Wellness Studio in GK, where she gives Pilates, Pre & Post Natal and Nutrition training. She also trains models and conducts TV health and fitness programmes.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Ladies,

What an entertaining November General Meeting. A talk about Indian Couture fashion by the well known designer Tarun Tahiliani, and some of our own fashionable WIC "models" wearing his designs. Thank you to Ala Madhu for hosting the club at her exceptional restaurant Florian.

November brings us many thanks to our First Vice President, Sheila Ghatate and all of her wonderful and fun Circle Leaders. We had a whirlwind trip to Myanmar, with a tremendous amount of time and effort put in by our "Tours - Explore India and the World" circle leaders; Japanese gift wrapping by our very own Atsuko Watanabe and hosted by Tracy Flannery; A very special hour with K.K. Hebbar and Stefan Norblin at the National Gallery of Modern Art organized by The Arts Circle; thank you to Lakshmi Chandra for hosting the interesting, Mix and Match - the Dynamics of Multi-cultural Families organized for us by the Cultural Kaleidoscope Circle; Book Circle thanks to our hostess Titli Sahni; Indonesian delicacies hosted wonderfully by Taru Kanwar and planned by our ever vigilant Gourmessa Circle; and finally, thank you for our talk on the topic of Breast disease by Dr. Kanchan Kaur, hosted by Divya Malhotra.

The beautiful thing about belonging to such a culturally diverse club such as WIC is that we are always celebrating a special festive season. For many of us this is the Christmas season. A Christian holiday symbolizing love and peace while celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ. We decorate our homes with Christmas trees and wreaths. There is nothing more exciting for the children to wait anxiously for "Santa" to come and bring gifts that are opened up on Christmas morning.

Wishing everyone a happy Christmas holiday.

EXPLORE INDIA & THE WORLD

The Jaipur Literature Festival, 2012 - The Greatest Literary show on Earth

WIC Dates: 20 - 23 January, 2012

Dear Members,

Given that we prebooked our hotel the cost of 5 Star hotel for three nights is only Rs.10,500 per night. Although we have had a good response from members, there are still a few spots available. In order to take advantage of this great price, we will need to receive your payment by 30th November. Please let us know if you are interested.

Hoping to see you in Jaipur.

Book CIRCLE

Date: Friday, 9th December Time: 3:00 p.m.
Residence of: Sunandani Kapur
Address: B-34, Malcha Marg
Mobile: 9810046345 Limited to: 30 participants

Sabeena Gadihoke, who is an Associate Professor, Video and TV Productions at the AJK Mass Communication Centre at Jamia University and a Fulbright scholar, has put together a wonderful record of Homai Vyarawalla's work, India's first female photo-journalist. Homai, who is still alive, came from a small Parsi community in Gujarat. For three decades she was the only female photo journalist in India capturing the most memorable pictures of the pre and post independence era. Sabeena has painstakingly and beautifully collected all this material which is a rich testament to this woman's achievements.

The book "Camera Chronicles of Homai Vyarawalla" is available at all major bookshops, the National Gallery of Modern Art and on Flipkart. We urge all participants of the Book Circle to look at the book before the meeting to enrich their appreciation and the discussion.
